Successful Aging

A concept being discussed in medical and psychological circles is the concept of successful aging. Researchers claim that someone who is aging successfully is fulfilling three criteria. The criteria are, doing all one can to decrease the possibility of disabling diseases, striving to maintain high cognitive and physical functioning for as long as possible, and being actively engaged with life. All three criteria are interrelated. However, successful aging is more than absence of disease and more than the maintenance of all functional capacities. Both are important components of successful aging, but it is their combination with active engagement with life that represents the concept of successful aging most fully.

While active engagement with life takes many forms, researchers are most concerned with one element — interpersonal relations. They believe quality social connections based on compassionate listening and the sharing of wisdom creates tremendous societal value. According to them a person who engages in such activities as caring for a family member, helping take care of neighbors or grandchildren, making weekly social connections, or works as a volunteer in a local church or school or non-profit is making a significant contribution, although unpaid. Researchers have discovered that a sense of purpose and meaning from such activities is critical for someone to age successfully.

It has been found that volunteering not only benefits society but has health benefits for those willing to give of their time. In Baltimore, a project was launched where older adults tutored children in kindergarten through third grade. Those who tutored were better able to perform activities of daily livings, had fewer falls, showed improved strength and balance, and had more social engagement than those who did not tutor. Children who were tutored by the older adults showed improved reading achievement, and at the schools where they were assigned, climate, teacher morale, and retention were all improved. Also, after a year of tutoring, teachers' perceptions of older adults were more positive.

In February we saw the passing of two men from the church, Captain Arnold Itz and Former Hanover High School Principal Don Virtue, who both aged successfully through a life of service. Don at age 94 attended an Alzheimer's support group just a few days before he passed where he offered wisdom and support to those who cared for loved ones with Alzheimer's disease. Don cared for his wife for over 12 years as she battled with this disease. Arnold at age 91 also lived a vigorous life of service. He offered his wisdom and insight to others at a weekly Bible study, was an active member of many Town of Hanover committees, and supported for decades a ministry to sailors who bring vital goods to the port of Boston.

The Bible addresses the connection between caring for others, a life centered on relationships, and successful aging. In Exodus 20:12 it is written, "Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving you" and in 1 Kings 3:14 it states, "If you walk in love and service and keep God's decrees and commands, God will give you a long life."

What is encouraging about a concept of successful aging based on relationship building is even older adults with physical limitations can reach out to others in meaningful ways through letter writing, phone calls, and social media. Let us accept the challenge of aging successfully by touching the lives of others with simple acts of love and concern.

GROWING IN FAITH AND FELLOWSHIP

NEW ORGAN BRINGS A NEW ATTITUDE OF WORSHIP

After months of research, fund raising and a few unexpected snags in the past month or two, it is with great pleasure that we celebrated the installation of the Rodgers organ! On February 17, Chad treated worshippers to a wonderful prelude and postlude played on FCC's new organ with a familiar sound that completely filled the sanctuary. During the offertory, when he usually plays on the Clavanova, Chad experimented with the organ, playing the well known and well loved hymn, "Morning has Broken", which sounded impressive from where the choir was sitting. We are extremely grateful that Chad continues to share his musical talent and love of music with us each Sunday. It may take a few weeks to iron out all the kinks in the system as our organist becomes used to the new instrument, and our drummer and choir get used to the new configuration in the choir loft and pit. Hopefully, the improvements will allow Chad, Tim, and the choir to continue to offer worshippers a wonderfully positive and uplifting musical experience that reflects our love and devotion to God as disciples of Christ.

~Ginny Hunt and Sandy Adami

AVA SIGSBY WILL CHOOSE HYMNS FOR MARCH WORSHIP SERVICES

The Music Committee, in collaboration with Eric and Chad, designates one of its members each month to assist in the selection of hymns for our worship services. Got a favorite hymn or carol you'd like to sing? We encourage you to share your ideas with us in person or by email. The Music Committee contact for the month of February is Ava Sigsby (ats@sigscom.com). The Music Committee members who will be the "point person" in the months ahead are Maddie Thomas, Sandy Adami, and Priscilla Cedrone.

DINING FOR DOLLARS UPDATE

We just received the check for The Bertucci's fundraiser on November 15 which netted $143.29 for the vital music ministry of our church. Thank you to all who participated on that day as a way to donate to the organ fund and for Andrew Talbot organizing the effort.

A QUICK UPDATE FROM THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

- Thank you to all the congregational members who provided a 2019 Pledge. This was very helpful in setting our budgets for 2019.
- At Annual Meeting, the church approved the proposed Operating Budget of $264,250 which represented a balanced budget.
- In addition, the Building Fund Budget was endorsed at $25,879 and the Outreach & Service Budget at $21,084 (both figures set via direct Pledge commitments).
- Doug Troupe and Cynthia Price Taylor have joined Bob Berry and Jim Hoyes on the Finance Committee for 2019. We are happy to gain new members.
- Carol Gillis remains our Treasurer and Elaine Backer remains the Financial Secretary. Both are ex officio members of the Finance Committee.
- The Finance Committee has two openings. We are seeking volunteers to help us achieve our 2019 goals and start new initiatives including an audit, increased engagement and transparency with the congregation and other church committees and explore the possibilities of a Capital Campaign. Please consider joining us – we can use the help.
- Bob Berry was voted the Finance Committee representative to the Stewardship Committee and Doug Troupe was voted the Finance Committee representative to the Investment Committee.

Faithfully yours,
Jim Hoyes, Finance Committee Chair

SOUTH MEADOW VILLAGE HELPS US SUPPORT SHRINERS

A huge bag of flip tops were delivered to us from the folks at South Meadow Village in Carver. We are so very thankful for their contributions throughout the year. Look for our Heifer box in Riley Hall to the left of the kitchen to place your empty redeemable cans and bottles. If you have tabs, they can also be left in the box as long as they are enclosed in some sort of bag. Thank you for your continued support of this mission.

JOIN US FOR ASH WEDNESDAY SOUP SUPPER AND SERVICE ON WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6

We will celebrate Ash Wednesday with a soup supper at 6 pm at the church followed by the Ash Wednesday Service at 7 pm. The imposition of ashes and the sharing of communion remind us of our common frailty and lead us to affirm God's truth that death has been defeated.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY FAITH BUILD DAY SATURDAY, MARCH 16

We still have a few more slots for anyone interested in joining the group from FCC Hanover working on houses on Saturday, March 16. Two three-family houses are being built in Duxbury and they are hoping for a crew of at least twenty people for their FAITH BUILD DAY. 7 JULY 2019 – 13 JULY 2019 US/MEXICO BORDER TOUR

The South East Area Mission and Justice Committee is partnering with the UCC’s “Romero Center for Border Ministries and Strategies,” to provide you with a unique interactive experience of the United States border with Mexico. You will see first-hand the terrain, obstacles, and challenges faced by both Border Patrol Agents and migrants from Mexico and Central America. Now more than ever people in the US need to know the complicated reality of the struggle and sorrow at our southern national border. Regardless of your political views on current border issues, you will find that exploring the terrain, meeting the people, and learning about Border Patrol operations highly educational. Email Rev. Eric, reveric@fcchanover.org, for more information.

We extend our sympathy to the following in our church family:

- ◆ The family of Clara Hoyes, mother of Jim Hoyes, who passed on January 28.
- ◆ Barbara Itz on the passing of her husband, Arnold Itz, on February 5.
 - ◆ The family of Donald Virtue on his passing February 11.

Arnoldus Itz, 91, pictured left, knew what it means to live a life of duty and service. He was faithful in his service to the Seafarers’ Friend, receiving special commendation, and in his service to FCC Hanover, singing in the choir and organizing the mailing of the church newsletter. He shared his love of woodworking, traveled with his wife Barbara, and spent time with his children and grandchildren. We will remember the ways in which he fully embraced the gift of life and his resilient spirit.

Donald Virtue, 94, pictured right, knew what it meant to live a life of service. He served his country in World War II and he served his town as principal of Hanover High School. He shared his love of trains, made a home with his wife Charlotte, traveled with his second wife Catherine, and enjoyed the time he spent with his children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. We will remember the ways in which he fully embraced the gift of life and his caring spirit.

PEOPLE NEWS

CONSIDER LISTING A MEMORIAL FUND GIFT IN THE OBITUARY OF A LOVED ONE

The Memorial Fund Committee would like to remind families that donations given to the Memorial Fund in memory of a loved one are greatly appreciated. Donations can be given for a specific purpose, or the committee could suggest what is most needed for the church. This past year donations have been given to support scholarships, mission trips, the purchase of a new advent wreath, and the organ fund. Thank you for this consideration.

HAVE YOU THOUGHT OF INCLUDING THE CHURCH IN YOUR WILL?

An excellent way for you to support your local church's mission is to leave the church a bequest in your will. Many people designate a percentage of their estate, say five to ten percent, in their will to support the church's long term ministry. Designating even a small percentage is a great blessing to the church and allows a person to still leave the bulk of their estate to loved ones. We appreciate you considering leaving a lasting legacy to Christ's church.

- ◆ Daniel Botelho, pictured left, has made Dean's List for two terms at Worcester Polytechnic Institute. He is pictured left with mascot Gomepi.
- ◆ Rev. Eric has been invited by the Christian Fellowship Club at Milton Academy to do a presentation at their annual assembly on March 6. The title of his presentation will be "Spirituality and the Teenage Brain." Caitlin Waugh is the co-leader of the club.
- ◆ Paige Stroshine received account executive of the quarter for her sales record as an enterprise account executive for Dell EMC.
- ◆ Hal Thomas, pictured right, was presented a 50 year veteran's pin recently by the Phoenix Masonic Lodge.

- It was good to share some conversations and worship with the good folks in Hanover on February 3. My leadership within this Conference and the wider church focuses around our core vision: to deepen people's discipleship in Christ, to faithfully adapt to a changing world, to walk in Christ's teachings of love and justice, and to seek relationship and partnership with those who seek the common good within the will of God. In these challenging times I ask your prayers for me as I assure you of my prayers for you and the Church we love. Blessings, Rev. Don Remick, Transitional Conference Minister and President of the Massachusetts Conference

- I just received my Monthly Spire. I just wanted to point out what a great publication it is. We as a Church are fortunate to have such talented and devoted people participating in its production each month. Give yourselves a pat on the back for a job well done! Thanks Ken Greene
- Dear FCC Hanover,
Thank you for the fruit basket (with lots of other goodies, too!) that you sent to us while in Pennsylvania for my Mom's funeral. As we rushed through a number of family events, we enjoyed the food nourishment just as we were supported by the spiritual nourishment of our faith and the knowledge of my mother's faith-filled life. Thank you. Jim, Pam, Jimmy, Dana and Luke Hoyes
- Dear Friends,
Thank you on behalf of the hundreds of seafarers we see each week. Your gift of $500 makes it possible to provide comfort to the seafarers and be able to be there for them through tough times. The chance to call home, to shop for needed supplies, and the refreshment that comes from walking on land is immensely important to those at sea. Your partnership with Seafarer's Friend helps ease the stress and heartache from being away from family long periods. Thank you for your prayers and continued support. Gratefully, Ida Mac Rae, Director of Operations, Seafarer's Friend
